The Honorable Gentry Crowell
Secretary of State

Dear Mr. Crowell:

SUBJECT: HOUSE BILL 1053/SENATE BILL 1403

I am hereby filing House Bill 1053 with your office without my signature.

In Opinion No. U89-71, issued by the Attorney General on May 23, 1989, the Attorney General opined that a portion of this bill is unconstitutional. Since the bill does not contain a severability clause, there is some question as to whether or not the balance of the bill can be effective. This question would have to be answered by the courts.

THURSDAY, MAY 25, 1989 -- FIFTY-FIRST LEGISLATIVE DAY

For this reason, I am allowing House Bill 1053 to become law without my signature.

Sincerely,
/s/Ned McWherter

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

MR. SECRETARY OF STATE: I am directed by the Governor to return herewith: House Bill(s) No(s). 1111; without his signature.

DAVID H. WELLES,
Counsel to the Governor.

The Honorable Gentry Crowell
Secretary of State
State Capitol

Dear Mr. Crowell:

SUBJECT: House Bill 1111

I hereby return House Bill 1111 without my signature.

House Bill 1111 provides for an additional judge to be added in the Fourteenth Judicial District. Currently, the Fourteenth Judicial District consists of Coffee County and has one Trial Court judge.

THURSDAY, MAY 25, 1989 -- FIFTY-FIRST LEGISLATIVE DAY

In 1984, the General Assembly enacted a comprehensive judicial restructuring bill. The stated purpose of the General Assembly was "to reorganize the existing trial court system of this state in such a way that its growth occurs in a logical and orderly manner." Under that comprehensive legislation the state was divided into 31 judicial districts and an objective scheme was envisioned to provide for judges to be added in any given judicial district.

That legislation also provided several mechanisms to deal with imbalances in caseloads. Judges and chancellors were authorized to interchange with one another. The presiding judge in each district was authorized to assign cases to the judges and chancellors within the district; to request assistance from other presiding judges; or to request the Supreme Court to temporarily assign an additional judge.

As Speaker, I supported the 1984 Judicial Restructuring Act because I saw the need, as I do now, to have in place a mechanism to carefully allocate the number of judges in each district so the needs of all are served, while at the same time, assuring that our judges work hard.

I find it hard to say that under this bill the judiciary grows in a "logical and orderly manner."

On average, in 1987, each trial court judge in our state served approximately 38,000 people. The population of the Fourteenth Judicial District at that time was estimated at 41,700. Statewide, this gave it a ranking of 10 out of 31 judicial districts. The addition of a judge to this district would amount to each judge attending approximately 20,850 people and would give it the highest judge per population ranking of all 31 judicial districts. If each judicial district was allocated one judge for each 20,000 people, the number of trial court judges would almost double. This is not the logical and orderly growth of the judiciary which was envisioned in 1984.

I have a great respect for the separation of powers between the three branches of government. I also have a great respect for the legislative process and the General Assembly's work to address matters dealing with the judiciary. For this reason, I am allowing House Bill 1111 to become law without my signature.

Sincerely,
/s/ Ned McWherter

DAVID H. WELLES,
Counsel to the Governor.

THURSDAY, MAY 25, 1989 -- FIFTY-FIRST LEGISLATIVE DAY

June 7, 1989

The Honorable Gentry Crowell
Secretary of State
State Capitol
Nashville, TN 37219

Dear Mr. Crowell:

SUBJECT: HOUSE BILL 1203

I hereby return House Bill 1203 without my signature.

House Bill 1203 provides for an additional judge to be added in the Seventeenth Judicial District. Currently, the Seventeenth Judicial District consists of the counties of Bedford, Lincoln, Marshall and Moore and has two trial court judges.

In 1984, the General Assembly enacted a comprehensive judicial restructuring bill. The stated purpose of the General Assembly was "to reorganize the existing trial court system of this state in such a way that its growth occurs in a logical and orderly manner." Under that comprehensive legislation the state was divided into 31 judicial districts and an objective scheme was envisioned to provide for judges to be added in any given judicial district.

That legislation also provided several mechanisms to deal with imbalances in caseloads. Judges and chancellors were authorized to interchange with one another. The presiding judge in each district was authorized to assign cases to the judges and chancellors within the district; to request assistance from other presiding judges; or to request the Supreme Court to temporarily assign an additional judge.

As Speaker, I supported the 1984 Judicial Restructuring Act because I saw the need, as I do now, to have in place a mechanism to carefully allocate the number of judges in each district so the needs of all are served, while at the same time, assuring that our judges work hard. I find it hard to say that under this bill the judiciary grows in a "logical and orderly manner."

On average, in 1987, each trial court judge in our state served approximately 38,000 people. The population of the Seventeenth Judicial District at that time was estimated at 82,600 thereby providing for each judge in the Seventeenth Judicial District to serve 41,300 people. Statewide, this gave it a ranking of 11 out of the 31 judicial districts.

The addition of a judge to this district would amount to each judge attending approximately 27,533 people and would give it one of the highest judge per population rankings of all 31 judicial districts. If each judicial district was allocated one judge for each 27,533 people, the number of trial court judges would increase approximately 40 percent. This is not the logical and orderly growth of the judiciary which was envisioned in 1984.

Also, a review of the caseload in the Seventeenth Judicial District, as compared with the average caseload across the state, fails to show a need for an additional judge. In 1988, the cases carried over by and the cases disposed of by judges in the Seventeenth Judicial District was almost identical to the average number of cases carried over and disposed of per judge statewide. The number of cases filed and the total caseload in the Seventeenth District was somewhat above the statewide average, but by no means the highest in the state. As I have indicated above, there are mechanisms in place to deal with temporary imbalances in caseloads when the need arises.

I have requested and reviewed the transcript of the minutes of the meeting of the Tennessee Judicial Council which recommended this bill for passage at its meeting on March 13, 1989. Immediately after hearing testimony in favor of the bill, members of the Judicial Council expressed strong reservations about the legislation. One member stated as follows:

"With these two districts, if we start getting a judge for every 25,000 people out of your 4.5 million, you stop to think how many judges we are going to have... Looking at the statistics in the form in which they are presented here, this district in 1984 only had 1,200 cases filed, in 1985 1,200, in 1986 1,254 filed, in 1987 1,238 - that is per judge average..."

Another member of the council stated, "...the problem is that some other district is going to come in with 5,000 more people and they are going to say yes, but you gave one at 78,000 so we need one and one thing leads to another." I agree with these reservations and yet for some reason the Judicial Council gave its approval to this legislation.

I have a great respect for the separation of powers between the three branches of government. I also have a great respect for the legislative process and the General Assembly's work to address matters dealing with the judiciary. For this reason, I am allowing House Bill 1203 to become law without my signature.

Sincerely,
/s/ Ned McWherter

THURSDAY, MAY 25, 1989 -- FIFTY-FIRST LEGISLATIVE DAY

June 13, 1989

The Honorable Gentry Crowell
Secretary of State
State Capitol
Nashville, TN. 37219

Dear Mr. Crowell:

SUBJECT: HOUSE BILL NO. 66

I hereby return House Bill 66 without my signature.

House Bill 66 creates the position of district attorney general for the Thirty-First Judicial District.

I am advised that legislative action was necessary prior to the general election in 1990 to meet constitutional requirements. However, I cannot say that the action taken was the best method of resolving the constitutional questions.

I have great respect for the separation of powers between the three branches of government. I also have great respect of the legislative process and the General Assembly's authority to address matters dealing with the Judicial Branch of government. For this reason, I am allowing House Bill 66 to become law without my signature.

Sincerely,
/s/Ned McWherter
